"54, Commercial Road, Peckham, July 12.
"Dear Sir.—I am a poor hand at expressing my feeling, but I should like to thank you. Your lozenges have done wenders in relieving my terrible cough.
Since I had the operation of Truchetomy (the same as the late Emperer of Germany, and unlike him, thank God, I am still alive) performed at St. Bartholomew's Hospital no one could possibly have had a more violent cough; it was so bad at times that it quite exhausted me. The mneus, which was very copious and hard, has been softened, and I have been able to get rid of it without difficulty. —I am air, yours truly, J. HILL."

UTTERLY UNRIVALLED. UTTERLY UNRIVALLED.

The above speaks for itself. From strict inquiry i appears that the bouetit from using Koating's Cough Lozenges is understated. The operation was a specially severe one and was performed by the specialist, Dr. H. T. Butlin, of St. Bartholomew's Hospital. Since to operation the only means of relief is the use of these Lozenges. So successful are they that one affords im-toediate benefit, actiough from the nature of the case the throat irritation is intense.

WEIGHT IN GOLD. Weight in Gold. Under date Sept. 8th, 1891, Mr. Hill again writes: Lozenges—they are worth their weight in gold. I will gladly see and tell anyone what a splendid cough remedy they are."

Kesting's Cough Lozenges, the unrivilled remedy for COUGHS, HOALISENESS, and THROAT THOUBLES are sold in Bottles by all Chemisis.

ITALIAN RECEPTION OF THE BRITISH MEDITERRANEAN SQUADRON,

The British Squadron arrived at Taranto and met with a most cordial reception. Salutes were fired, and the national anthems of the two countries were heartily cheered by the multitudes. The British Government strongly deprecates the visit being construed into a counterblast to the Russian Squadron's visit to Toulon.

A very valuable report is published (says the Berlin correspondent of the N. C. No little stir has been occasioned in the precincts of the Vatican by the fact that the Freemasons of that city have established their head-quarters in the Palazzo Borghess where the Grand Orient Lodge now holds it meetings. The creditors of the prince to whom it belongs have leased the palace to that body for a term of years. It is regarded as a curious exemplification of the irony of fate that an edifice commenced by Cardinal D. zza and finished by Pope Paul the Fifth, who was himself a Borghese, should have passed into the hands of a society which, both in France and Italy, is the uncompromising enemy of the Papacy.

SHOULD an actor possess a national accent. The question is attracting some interest among Sydney play-goers at present, and it is one which has been discussed before. Charles Lamb would never have acquiesced in the propriety of a man with a broad Scotch accent playing Hamlet, or one with a thick, Irish brogue interpreting Othelle. But Lamb's dramatio criticisms were sometimes fantactically fastidious, and the actor's aim is not to please the one, but the many. There is a record of an Irishman who essayed to play Claude Melnotte in the 'Lady of Lyons,' and who, not content with invisting the hero with a rich Milesian soonat, took extraordinary liberties with the text, particularly in that speech of tropic gorgeousness in which Claude invites Pauline to his imaginary home in Lotusland.
